
Gaps at the floor are exact to solver round-off (reconstructed value slightly negative); a log axis cannot show those.